

Dear Families,

Our classroom is using MVP Kids' INSTILL Social and Emotional Learning program. The focus of these activities will be to instill values that develop your child's character, emotional regulation, self-esteem, and good decision-making skills. You will receive periodic family letters explaining the lessons and providing tips and activities for practicing your child's new skills at home. On occasion, an MVP at Home template will be sent home with instructions for you to complete with your child and return to school.

Repetition of the concepts at home will help your child retain and use the skills we're learning. You may access the program music as well as FREE downloadable MVP at Home templates, finger puppets, and other items.
